

FLEXIBLE WORKING POLICY

This Policy was ratified by the Board of Directors on :	Summer 2024
This Policy will be reviewed by the GLC Board on :	Spring 2026

GLC Mission Statement

The GLC's mission is to develop active and thriving citizens within a diverse, truly fair and equal community.

This will be achieved through:

- High quality teaching that deliberately develops competencies of curiosity, creativity, communication and critical-thinking;
- An inspiring and meaningful curriculum;
- The development of productive relationships by instilling the values of compassion, resilience, responsibility and aspiration to prepare our young people for learning and life;
- A commitment to the wellbeing of our staff;
- A culture of professional generosity, collaboration, challenge and support throughout the GLC;
- The development of effective external partnerships for the benefit and wellbeing of our community.

Equalities Statement

The GLC's commitment to equality is enshrined in our mission statement to develop 'active and thriving citizens within a diverse, truly fair and equal community'.

We are a vibrant, innovative and successful organisation: we work hard to be the place of choice to work and to learn. Across the 5 academies of the GLC, we pledge that everyone enjoys an equality of opportunity. We work tirelessly to ensure that individual characteristics including age, ethnicity, socio-economic background, academic ability, disability, gender, religious beliefs, sexual orientation are not discriminated against in any way. We create inclusive environments characterised by mutual respect where difference is celebrated.

1. Introduction

The GLC recognises that employees may wish to change their working pattern / arrangements for a variety of reasons and recognises that allowing this can support the retention of experienced staff and support wellbeing and work life balance. Flexible working arrangements can also increase staff motivation and improve performance and productivity.

This policy sets out the process employees should follow when making a flexible working request and how such requests will be handled. All flexible working requests will be considered and will be managed objectively and fairly. There is no obligation under the flexible working legislation for employers to agree to a request, however, requests will only be rejected where there is a valid business reason for doing so [see section 11 below].

A flexible working request is a request by an employee for a permanent change to their contractual terms and conditions of employment. Examples of changes employees may request include changes to:

- Their overall hours of work [including part time or job share]
- Their working times / pattern
- Work from home or change their place of work

Any agreed change to the contract of employment as a result of a flexible working application will result in a permanent variation to the contract. If the employee is requesting a temporary change to their working pattern/arrangements this is outside the scope of the flexible working legislation and this policy [see section 11].

The only way for an employee to further change/amend their working pattern or return to their previous working pattern will be to make a further flexible working request, although an employee may only make 2 requests within any period of 12 months.

Eligibility

Employees have the right to request flexible working from “day one” of their employment. All requests from all employees will be given equal consideration and looked at in a fair and equitable manner.

Under the statutory scheme, an employee may only make 2 applications within any 12-month period to the same employer. Any further applications will be considered on a discretionary basis.

2. Making an Application

Employees who wish to submit a flexible working application must do so in writing. Employees may complete an SFW1 form [see Appendix 2] or submit a letter or email containing the appropriate information as set out below. Applications must be submitted to the Head of School in the first instance.

The right to request flexible working legislation requires that employees must include the following information in their application:

- State that it is a statutory request for flexible working;
- State the date of the application, set out the change to working conditions requested and the date they wish it to become effective;
- If and when a previous flexible working request has been made.
- State if they are making their request in relation to the Equality Act 2010, for example, as a reasonable adjustment for a disability.

A flexible working application is taken as made on the day it is received by the employer.

If an employee's request for flexible working does not contain the required information, the employee's line manager should explain to the employee what additional or amended information needs to be provided and ask the employee to resubmit their request.

3. Timing of applications

Under the statutory scheme there is no set notice period for making a request. The law requires the consideration process to be completed within two months of first receiving the request, including the appeal. Therefore, the proposed date for the change to take effect should allow time for the application to be considered and implemented.

Employees are encouraged to submit requests during normal school term times. Where a request is received shortly before or during a school closure period, an extension to the 2 month period will be sought to ensure the request can be properly considered and to allow adequate time for the process to be concluded.

If for some other reason the request cannot be dealt within 2 months, then an extension to this time limit can be agreed between the employer and the employee. Any such extension will be confirmed in writing.

An employee who is thinking about changing their working pattern should discuss the possibility of doing so with their Head of School as soon as possible.

If an employee would like the change to their working arrangements to commence after a period of leave [e.g. maternity leave] they should make the application in good time and, wherever possible, mention it to their Head of School before they commence their leave.

4. Flexible Working Request Process

A flowchart showing an overview of the process is available at Appendix 1.

5. Discussing the request

On receipt of a request, the Head of School will arrange to discuss the request with the employee as soon as possible so that their application can be properly and fairly considered. This will normally be in a meeting or by another method agreed with the employee.

The discussion will provide an opportunity to explore the desired work pattern in depth and how it might be accommodated. It may be necessary to discuss other possible alternative working arrangements if there are problems in accommodating the employee's exact requested pattern/arrangements as outlined in their application.

A discussion may not always be needed, for example when an employer is happy to accept a request, but it may be helpful to discuss a request with an employee anyway to confirm how the proposed working arrangements will work in practice and clarify any outstanding practical considerations.

If the employer is minded to reject the request, a meeting will always be held to consult the employee before making a decision.

The employee may invite their trade union representative to the meeting.

6. The Decision

The Head of School will consider all requests fairly and equitably considering all the individual circumstances and operational needs.

Each request will be considered on a case-by-case basis: agreeing to one request will not set a precedent or create the right for another employee to be granted a similar change to his/her working pattern.

The duty upon the employer is to consider requests for flexible working. There is no obligation to accept such requests, however, applications will only be rejected for a valid reason as set out at section 12 below.

7. Request Agreed

If after the discussion/meeting with the employee, the Head of School agrees to the proposal [or an alternative arrangement which has been discussed and agreed with the employee] the employee will be notified in writing or on the flexible working acceptance form [Form SFW2 – see Appendix 3] of the variation that has been agreed and the date on which it will take effect as soon as is reasonably practicable after the meeting.

If the variation requires new / amended contractual/payroll documentation this will be provided to the employee, wherever possible before the variation takes effect.

8. Permanent Change

A new working pattern/arrangement will be a permanent change. There is no statutory right to revert back to any former working arrangements. There may be occasions where an employee makes a request for a permanent change to their working pattern / arrangements under this policy and during the discussion with the employee an agreement is made that the new working pattern/arrangement will be for a temporary/trial period.

In such circumstances, the Head of School will confirm the period that the new arrangement will apply in their letter confirming the outcome of the request or on form SFW2.

If the request is granted for a temporary or trial period, the Head of School will normally set review points at which the new arrangements can be reviewed and discussed and any necessary adjustments can be made. Unless otherwise agreed, the employee will revert to their original working pattern/arrangement at the end of the temporary or trial period.

9. Requests for temporary changes

Where an employee specifically requests a temporary change to their working patterns/arrangements [i.e. the employee will be returning to their previous working arrangements after a specified event or period of time] this falls outside the scope of the flexible working legislation. Such requests will be considered outside this policy and if the temporary change can be accommodated the employee will be issued with confirmation of the temporary variation to their terms and conditions. Unless otherwise agreed, the employee will then revert to their original working pattern/arrangement at the end of the temporary or trial period. If the request cannot be agreed, the employee will be notified and there will be no right of appeal.

Any temporary requests which have been agreed will not count as a formal flexible working application and therefore if a subsequent request for a permanent change to working patterns/arrangements is made it will be considered under the procedure set out in this policy.

10. Request Denied

All requests to work flexibly will be considered objectively and requests will only be refused where there is a valid ground. The valid grounds for rejecting a request are as follows:

- The burden of additional costs
- Detrimental effect on ability to meet customer demands
- Inability to reorganise work among existing staff
- Inability to recruit additional staff
- Detrimental impact on quality
- Detrimental impact on performance
- Insufficiency of work during the periods the employee proposes to work
- Planned structural changes

If the Head of School is unable to agree to the request, they will consult the employee before rejecting the request. The employee may invite their union rep to the meeting. Where the decision is then made to reject the request, the flexible working rejection form (SFW3 – see Appendix 4) will be completed and provided to the employee as soon as reasonably practicable with an explanation of grounds for refusal, explaining why they apply in the circumstances, and setting out the appeal procedure (or a letter setting out the appropriate information if form SFW3 is not being used).

11. Appeals

Where an employee is dissatisfied with the decision they may appeal. The appeal must be submitted in writing to the Headteacher within 5 working days of the date of notification of the decision, setting out the grounds of the appeal.

The person/body who will hear the appeal will depend on who made the initial decision:

Initial decision:	Appeal heard by:
Head of School	CEO

The person/body considering the appeal will convene an appeal meeting as soon as possible after receiving the employee’s written notice of appeal. This meeting will provide an opportunity for the employee to explain their application and reasons for appeal. The person who made the initial decision will also be present at the meeting to explain the reasons behind the decision.

As soon as possible after the appeal meeting (and normally within 3 working days unless otherwise agreed) the employee will be notified in writing of the outcome of the appeal (see SFW4 part B at Appendix 5). There is no further right of appeal.

12. Right to be accompanied

An employee may choose to be accompanied at the initial discussion/meeting and any appeal meeting by a work colleague of his / her choice or by a trade union representative. The companion may address the meeting and confer with the employee during the discussion/meeting, but will not be permitted to answer questions on the employee's behalf.

If an employee's chosen companion is unavailable at the time proposed for a meeting then the employer may postpone the meeting to an alternative agreed time. The new agreed time should be as soon as possible and normally within 7 days beginning after the day initially proposed by the employer.

13. Withdrawal of request

An employee who withdraws their application will be eligible to make another 1 further application within 12 months from the date their application was made. Confirmation of the withdrawal must be made in writing to the Head of School.

Where a meeting has been arranged to discuss the request, if an employee cannot attend the meeting the employee must contact the Head of School as soon as possible to explain the reason they cannot attend. The meeting will be re-arranged at the next mutually convenient time. An employee who fails to attend a meeting and any subsequently rearranged one without a reasonable explanation will be treated as having withdrawn their application. The Head of School will consider the reasons for the employee failing to attend both meetings before reaching any decision to consider their application withdrawn. In such circumstances, the Head of School will write to the employee confirming that their application is considered withdrawn.

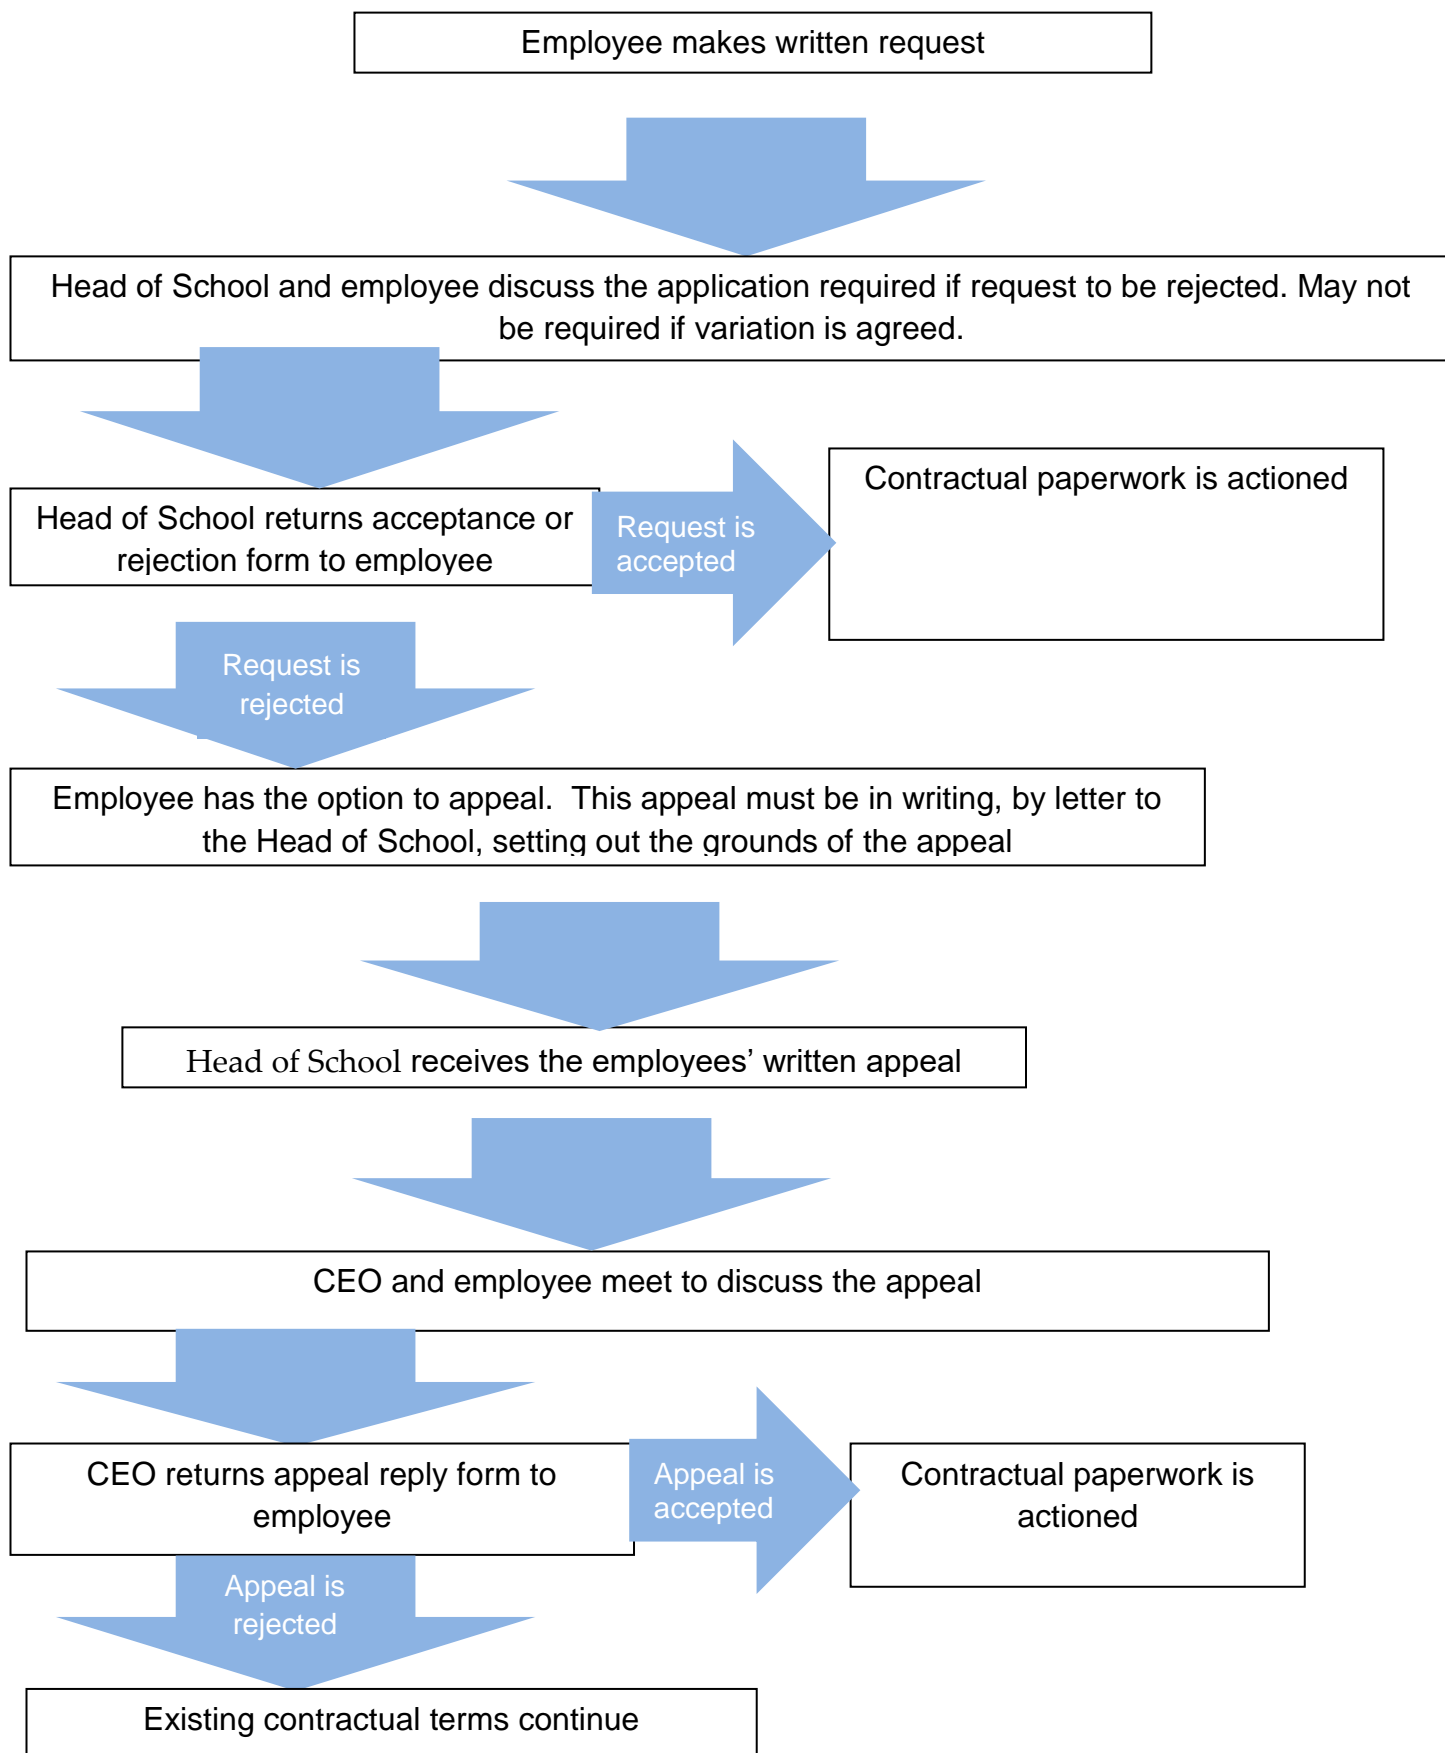

14. Data Protection and records retention

The GLC processes personal data collected during the flexible working application process [including written records of meetings held under the process] in accordance with its data protection policy. In particular, data collected from the point at which the GLC receives a flexible working request is held securely and accessed by, and disclosed to, individuals only for the purposes of managing the flexible working request. On the conclusion of the process, data collected will be held in accordance with the school's retention schedule.

Inappropriate access or disclosure of employee data constitutes a data breach and should be reported in accordance with the GLC's data protection policy immediately. It may also constitute a disciplinary offence, which will be dealt with under the school's disciplinary procedure.
